Bhrigu Lake Trek

Bhrigu Lake is a high-altitude Himalayan lake near Manali. Named after Sage Bhrigu, who is said to have meditated here. It is a sacred lake for locals and is believed to never freeze completely, even in winter! Throughout the trek, the mountains of the Pir Panjal and Dhauladhar Ranges keep us company. With such beautifully spanning grasslands in front, our trekkers often forget what Switzerland is! Though a short trek, the highest altitude is a whopping 14,000 feet, so you get to experience the true thrill of a Himalayan trek in just three short days!

Bhriagu Lake Trek

Experience paradise on earth.

An easy yet thrilling trail for first-time trekkers.

Roll on alpine meadows.

Soak in the magical beauty of Himachal Pradesh.

Chance upon splendid views of towering snow peaks.

Make the most of stellar photography spots near the glacial lake.

Bhriagu Lake Itinerary

Day 1: Old Manali-Kulang-Moridugh (12 km drive & 7 km Trek)

- Report at our campsite in Old Manali in the morning.
- Freshen up and drive to the base of the trek i.e Kulang, we trek from Kulang to Moridugh (4-5hrs). Enjoy the trek through an ancient British route from the forest.
- Pleasant stay at campsite (9500ft) in the evening where you can capture amazing photographs of sunset in the Dhauladhar range. Overnight at camp stay.

Day 2: Trek to Bhriagu lake-Back to campsite (11 km trek)

- We start the awaited trek to Bhriagu Lake early morning after having a healthy breakfast. Today you catch some mesmerizing views of the famous towering peaks- Hanuman Tibba (The highest peak in the Dhauladhar range 5928 Meters), Manali peak, and Friendship peak.
- This day contains walks in the snow as well. At Bhriagu you'll get to spend enough time for photography and embracing the serenity around the holy semi-glacial lake.
- By evening we will be back at the campsite. Overnight at Campsite with a bonfire.

Day 3: Moridugh-Kulang-Old Manali (7 km Trek & 12 km drive)

- After Breakfast, descend from Moridugh to Kulang village (3 hrs).
- A car will receive you at Kulang village & will drop you at old Manali (around 2-3 pm), with the drop the great journey ends with beautiful memories of the trek.
